Rule making related to motor vehicle financial responsibility

The Transportation Department hereby amends Chapter 640, “Financial Responsibility,” Iowa Administrative Code.

Legal Authority for Rule Making

This rule making is adopted under the authority provided in Iowa Code sections 307.12 and 321A.2.

State or Federal Law Implemented

This rule making implements, in whole or in part, Iowa Code chapter 321A and sections 321.269 and 321.493.

Purpose and Summary

This rule making aligns Chapter 640 with existing legal authority and Department practice, eliminates outdated or irrelevant requirements, eliminates or replaces redundant and confusing language and accommodates current office structure and terminology. This rule making also reduces the regulatory burden on vehicle owners and operators by creating additional options and increased flexibility to demonstrate lawful compliance to avoid or lift license and registration suspension following an accident or a judgment.

Throughout the chapter, the name “Driver and Identification Services Bureau” is changed to “Motor Vehicle Division” to reflect the structure of the work units responsible for processing submissions and information under the chapter. Additionally, the term “suspension termination notice” is replaced with “notice terminating the suspension” and the associated form number is eliminated to align with current Department practice, the terms “proof” and “proof of financial responsibility for the future” are replaced with “proof of financial responsibility” to align with the language in Iowa Code chapter 321A, and other minor terminology and form changes clarify existing Department terminology and procedures.

A definition of “security” is added that utilizes language in Iowa Code section 321A.5. The definition clarifies the portions of the chapter that refer to the term.

The implementation sentence of rule 761—640.3(321A) is amended to add a reference to Iowa Code section 321.269, which is the statute that requires the Department to prepare and supply accident report forms.

The amendments to rule 761—640.4(321A), related to license and registration suspension for failure to deposit security following an accident, specify what types of reports qualify as a “report of a motor vehicle accident” under Iowa Code section 321A.5(1), which requires the Department to initiate suspension procedures for an uninsured vehicle owner or operator who is involved in a motor vehicle accident that results in bodily injury, death, or damage exceeding $1,500. This clarification is intended to ensure that suspension procedures are properly initiated pursuant to Iowa Code section 321A.5 if the initially submitted accident report underestimates the personal or property damage to be under $1,500, or if the vehicle owner or operator is misidentified and the correct identity is later ascertained. Under the clarified rule, all of the following are considered a “report of a motor vehicle accident”: a new or amended accident report submitted by a law enforcement officer or a driver, any supplemental accident report submitted by a driver, proof of transfer of ownership of a vehicle involved in the accident that occurred prior to the date of the accident, proof of identity of a driver incorrectly identified in an initial accident report, and proof of loss submitted by an insurance carrier authorized to transact insurance business in Iowa or by an insurance carrier authorized by power of attorney.

The amendments to subparagraph 640.4(4)“b”(2), related to security disposition, clarify that the security can be refunded only after one year has elapsed from the date of the accident in accordance with Iowa Code section 321A.10, and that upon receipt of the applicable form, the Motor Vehicle Division may confirm with the district court that no court action has been initiated or judgment rendered as a result of the accident prior to refunding the security to the depositor, which aligns with current Department practice.

The new introductory paragraph in subrule 640.4(5), related to exceptions to the requirement of security, adds cross-references to Iowa Code sections 321A.6 and 321A.7, which establish certain exceptions from security requirements. Paragraphs 640.4(5)“a” through “h” and new paragraphs 640.4(5)“i” through “k” explain the specific forms and proofs that the Department can accept to prove that the person meets a statutory exception from security requirements. No new exceptions are added; rather, the amendments revise the terminology of the exceptions to more closely align with and avoid duplication of the language used in Iowa Code sections 321A.6 and 321A.7 and provide additional details about the requirements for such proof. Specifically, the amendments establish that certain proofs must be signed by the parent or legal guardian of a minor (not the minor), that the Department may in some cases accept alternate forms of proof if the alternate form contains substantially the same information as the Department-prescribed form and add criteria that must be included on certain proofs to be accepted by the Department.

Vehicle owner exceptions, formerly under paragraphs 640.4(6)“a,” “b,” and “c,” are moved under new paragraphs 640.4(5)“i,” “j,” and “k” for clarity and consistency. The new paragraphs create flexibility by allowing a vehicle owner to be excepted from security requirements if the vehicle had been sold but Department records do not show that vehicle ownership had been transferred when the accident occurred (because of the buyer’s failure to submit documentation to complete the title transfer), even if the seller is unable to obtain the buyer’s signature on the required form, provided the seller makes a certification under penalty of perjury and provides evidence to support the certification. This accommodates situations where the seller, following the sale of the vehicle and assignment (signing) of the title over to the buyer, makes a good-faith attempt to obtain the signature of the buyer on Form 431125, “Affidavit of Seller,” but the buyer is unresponsive or refuses to sign the affidavit. The amendments also provide that a sworn seller affidavit does not need to include the names of witnesses to the sale if there were no witnesses to the sale, which accommodates situations where the vehicle sale occurred one-on-one between the buyer and seller, and clarify under what conditions an owner may be exempt from security requirements because of ownership transfer by operation of law.

Rule 761—640.5(321A), related to suspensions for certified judgments under Iowa Code section 321A.13, is amended to align with the current procedures and forms. The amendments accomplish the following: update terminology to reflect the forms and processes used by clerks of court to report a certified copy of a judgment to the Department, add cross-references to include the Iowa Code sections that enumerate the exceptions from a suspension because of a judgment, eliminate or replace redundant and confusing language, provide that a new court order authorizing payment of a judgment in installments is acceptable to lift a defaulted judgment suspension, and clarify the conditions under which the insurance coverage exception can apply.

The amendments to rule 761—640.6(321A) clarify that a person’s license or operating privilege remains suspended or revoked until the person files proof of financial responsibility with the Department, and that a person’s motor vehicle registrations remain suspended until the person files proof of financial responsibility for all vehicles registered to that person. The amendments to subrule 640.6(1) add a cross-reference to include the Iowa Code section that enumerates triggering suspensions or revocations and add clarifying language to eliminate confusion surrounding the requirements to maintain proof of financial responsibility within the two-year period.

The amendments to subrule 640.6(3) specify that a person who has filed proof of financial responsibility with the Department and obtained a driver’s license will receive a card that lists the restriction code described in subrule 605.8(1) in accordance with current Department practice.

The amendments to subrule 640.6(4) clarify that a person who has proof of financial responsibility as an operator only (but not as an owner) may operate any nonowned vehicle that has the applicable liability coverage.

Finally, the amendments to subrule 640.6(7) remove the provision that a suspension termination notice may be presented to a county treasurer to obtain a new registration when a person has completed future proof requirements, which aligns with current Department practice and the Iowa Code.
